I deleted the original tweet with your information identifying you @tweet2karthik because I felt sorry but you deserve every bit of it. You are a psycho who lied to me knowing I will end up self harming and because you hated your mother and I reminded you of her, you purposely

3. He knew his gf was talking to Kokki and she released the information when I approached him September. He didn't confess, he protected her.

4. His gf got my number from him and contacted me and I told about our past.

5. New truth and revelations caused her great distress.

Lied because you wanted me to hurt myself. You are a psycho. I loved you so I didn't break up with you why didn't you break up with me if you think I tortured you?

Karthik Srinivasan CEO of WingWork didn't even tell me back in September that it was his gf who released the information.

She released the information to goons who humiliates people on live. He knew the extent of the damage and yet he didn't have the compassion to let me know.

அழகிய வெற்றிரத்தின-செல்வாரசி @azhaganaArasi · Apr 5

@tweet2karthik your gf's insecurity means they can abuse me if I were to question Kokki or CM. They can release my sensitive information along with anything they want and people of TikTok will believe it.

Karthik Srinivasan CEO of WingWork knows how much reputation means in a brown society and yet he didn't care. He will empower women in future?

Karthik Srinivasan CEO of WingWork and his finance wanted to humiliate me hence they shared my self harming stories with someone who used to abuse people by telling their private matter on live.

CEO of WingWork, let me guess mental health is a big thing for you lot

அழகிய வெற்றிரத்தின-செல்வாரசி @azhaganaArasi · Apr 5

@tweet2karthik your gf decided to release personal stuff people like him.

Because wait what, she was insecure and thought I tortured you.

But a woman with obvious self harming issues and stigma against mental health in brown community did not even cross the mind of Karthik Srinivasan CTO of WingWork's mind. His gf's mental health was more important and I was to blame for the reaction. Misogynist

When I was in Edinburgh and he was in India, our lives revolved around with him. I go to university do all nighters and before I go to bed, I will speak to him. He shared his room with his sister and they had a spare room with his dad's old stuff. I asked him to clean it

If Karthik Srinivasan CTO of WingWork introduces his wife or fiancé, remember this person contacted an online abuser on her own record and told him about my self harming scars. After that I decided to own it and release the information here.

How much my ex and his new girlfriend hates me? She purposefully contacted a guy in tiktok because she thought I tortured him. He just had to see the images of my pain. He didn't have to feel it . She said some truth and she also lied. I don't think I can trust another man
